BOOK CLUB

Book club meets Wednesday January 30th at 6:30 p.m. at the library.

If you know of anyone one else wishing to join Book Club this month we have five additional copies of Heartland by Sarah Smarsh at Lee Vining Library. There is still time to read it!

There are small groups of people wishing to meet for Book Club on Saturday January 26th at 2:00 p.m. or Tuesday January 29th at 11:00 a.m. If you are one of these people, let me know, and I will see if there are enough people to hold these sessions. (I think 5 people min. for a good discussion?)

SOUP & STORYTELLING

The 2nd Inter-generational Live Storytelling Event takes place Monday February 11th at 5:00 p.m. at the library. Five people telling stories five minutes each!

These may be personal & dramatic in the style of The Moth, or recitations from library material. Hot soup will be served at 5:00 p.m. so you will not go hungry. Stories start promptly at 5:15 p.m. Student Loopers can hop on the bus home at 6:00 p.m. Our first storytelling event in November was a great success. Librarian Elaine made yummy carrot soup and I made vegetable lentil. We heard from one elementary school student, one high school student, and three entertaining adults.

Don't miss this one! This is a low-pressure opportunity to practice the art of story-telling and to get to know people in the community. Want more details? Want to tell your story? Just ask me.

NEW MORNING HOURS

For the month of February the library open hours will be shifting to Tuesday & Thursday mornings from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Wednesday, Friday & Saturday open hours will remain the same (1 p.m. - 5 p.m.) With these new morning hours the preschool will be able to visit the library as a class for the first time!

By varying the hours we hope to accommodate more patrons with different schedules. Apologies if this causes any confusion or inconvenience. Please check the bulletin board at the library or the library website for up-to-date information.

Help me build community. Please forward this email to any of your neighbors that you think might enjoy knowing what's happening at Lee Vining Library.

always, I value any feedback you have for me regarding our library.

Happy reading!
