

MAMMOTH LAKES FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

WINTER NEWSLETTER 2020

Tidbits from the Mono County Library Director's Report

- Christopher Platt, the Director, brought the Library's Mental Health Kits to the Town's convening on Behavioral Health and suicide on Thursday, February 6th. Approximately 75% of the Visitor's Center auditorium was filled with a mix of town people and local organizations, including all Behavioral Health staff. It was a serious yet positive and engaging experience.
- We received the $10,000 Maximizing Learning Spaces grant from the State to repurpose a portion of the Children's room into the 'Learning Space'. The grant-funded furniture for this space has been ordered and is expected to arrive early May.
- We continue to be a lead participant in the Census 2020 Complete Count Committee for Mono Country. We will be tabling Census flyers, announcing it at programs, and likely hosting a bilingual family "Census and Storytime" event in mid-March with First5 at the Mammoth Library.
- Our Measure U ask for the Makerspace 3-year funding round is nearly complete. We have shifted away from asking for a laser cutter due to issues around controlling and filtering the fumes. Instead, we are proposing to build out more activities related to "tinkering" and printmaking. We must have a 50% cash match as part of our request. We would use the annual $5,000 from Measure U to fund tinkering, guest program leads, and supplies for other maker activities. MCOE and the Library would continue to fund staff and staff training
- The Library's website hosts a link to the County's Public Safety Power Shutdown webpage which includes the helpful map of affected areas.
- The latest episode (as of 2/11/2020) of the Oxygen Starved Podcast includes a conversation with the Ranger that over-winters at Bodie. The next two will include conversations with author David Woodruff (Tales Along the El Camino Sierra) and Kristin Reese (Mono Arts Council). [See Oxygen Starved Podcast article in this issue.]

ON THE GALLERY WALL

- Jo Bacon

We had two successful exhibits in FY 2018-2019. Beautiful works by both the Out of the Box Quilt Group and the Eastern Sierra Photographers netted MLFOL $696.00. There was the added benefit, of course, for all patrons to view the works of talented local artists.

The latter group, one of our most popular shows, is back through April 2020. They are exhibiting their wonderous photography on the walls of the Ellie Randol Reading Room at the Mammoth Lakes Library. The library is located at the intersection of Meridian and Sierra Park Road.

If you need original art to decorate your home or as a gift, this is a great opportunity to purchase unique art. As always, MLFOL receives a minimum of 30% of the sale price to support library programs.

Please join the artists at the Artists' Reception on Saturday, March 21st, 2:30PM-5PM.

MLFOL SCHOLARSHIPS (Revised 1/13/2020)

Mammoth Lakes Friends of the Library will offer scholarships annually to Mammoth High School graduating seniors to help purchase books for college. The total amount available to be awarded will be included in that year's approved budget. The number of grants and the dollar amount of the grants will be based on the number of eligible candidates for that same fiscal year.

The following criteria shall apply:

- Students must have an active library card and have used their card to check out materials

- (not for computer use) during the previous twelve months from the time of application
- Students must fill out the community scholarship request form provided by MHS counseling staff.
 - Students must have attended Mammoth High School or the Independent Learning Center (ILC) for 3 out of the 4 years.
 - Students will be selected using Grade Point Average (GPA) as the main criteria, with a minimum of 3.0 GPA. This may be overridden for a student who has been a library volunteer and/or a student who has been a community volunteer above and beyond the required community service requirements, or whose outstanding personal essay merits additional consideration.
 - For special consideration, students may volunteer at the library, record their volunteer hours on the form available from the MHS counseling office, and submit the form with their applications.

Procedure:

Each year three members of the Mammoth Lakes Friends of the Library will be chosen as the Scholarship Selection Committee. This committee will request the community scholarship applications from the counseling staff. They will recommend, to the Board, students to receive the book scholarships.

The award will be given by a selected Mammoth Lakes Friends of the Library board member at the MHS Awards Breakfast, which usually takes place on the morning of graduation. At the breakfast, the student will receive a certificate of the award. The student will need to provide proof of registration in college to the Friends of the Library, before the check is written. The proof of registration can be mailed to the Friends of the Library or brought into any scheduled meeting.

Book Chalet & Newsletter for FY19-20
- OJ Zeleny

The Book Chalet had receipts of $12,477.50 and 3000 visitors. This was below the budgeted income by $22.50; an excellent result given the store dropped its operational days from 5 to 4 during FY19. Expenses were under budget by $460.42. Projected profit is $4,637.92.

The Children’s Book Give-Away on July 4th was dropped this year and for the foreseeable future. However, a 50% off sale was added for July 4th and Labor Day weeks which brought in the anticipated additional revenue. These will continue into the new fiscal year along with additional 50% sales for Thanksgiving and possibly Christmas weeks.

In FY19, 250 bookmarks were exchanged for a free book and four gift certificates totaling $20 were redeemed.

Three new volunteers joined during FY19: Rhonda Starr, Jen Crittenden and Natalie Mather.

The Yelp account for Book Chalet was activated. It is unknown who created it on Yelp, but we claimed it and are making the effort to update the open/close hours whenever they change.

For FY19 there were 250 printed newsletters; 82 of these were mailed and 164 newsletters were emailed. This is a reduction of 15 mailed from last year though the number emailed remain the same. The newsletter was budgeted at $250 and expenses were $259.49. This exceeded budget by $9.59 due to purchasing more stamps than needed before USPS postage cost increased.

Library New Hires by Edyth Irvine

Julia Tawney, new Circulation and Maker Space Assistant

Julia grew up in Portland, Oregon. She moved to California to attend Santa Clara University. During her university breaks she became familiar with the Eastern Sierra. After graduating with an emphasis in Environmental Studies and Cultural Anthropology, Julia moved to Sitka, Alaska and worked for one year in Conservation protecting the Tonga's National Forest. She moved to June Lake, California in December 2017 to become a Ski Instructor. Later she joined the Friends of the Inyo as a Trail Ambassador and as such she did interpretive hikes including geology of the area and trail maintenance.

When asked what she enjoys doing in her time off, she shared that she is a back country skier and hiker. She enjoys being in the alpine area and climbing the peaks of the Sierra. Julia further enjoys baking. Bagels are her speciality. In fact, she is just starting a small online business called "Sierra Sunrise Bagels". She recently purchased the domain name. I asked to see photos of her bagels, they look scrumptious. This winter, when not working at Mammoth Lakes Library, Julia is a Ski Instructor at Mammoth Mountain, or involved in making bagels.

Her passion is to connect youth with the actual world by empowering them through creativity and the natural world. In closing, Julia said "I am super grateful for being here at Mammoth Library. I am a fan of the library as a free institution and positive influence on the community."

Chalese Miller, new Early Literacy Coordinator

Chalese and her husband have been residents of Mammoth for several years. Her wide experiences include having been a Pre-school Director for 6 1/2 years in Tehachapi, as well as, being a volunteer at her children's schools. She has been involved in various parts of the Mammoth Lakes community, including working for the Southern Mono County Historical Society, as a Host on the Mountain and working in the Eleven53 Interpretive Center. Her entrepreneurial ventures with her family include Miller & Sons Barbecue Sauce and Miller & Daughter Wedding Planning.

As the Early Literacy Coordinator, she will be responsible to travel once each month to each of 12 sites in Mono County which include preschools, daycare providers, and libraries. She will also be responsible for the "Raising A Reader Program". Chalese will be developing a support system for the affiliates with whom she will be working, helping them to identify and reach their goals.

For fun outdoors, Chelsea enjoys skiing, back packing, hiking, and biking.

Chalese is very enthusiastic about the magical experiences that stories provide, as she understands the important role of early literacy in fostering empowered, lifelong learners.

SPY PILOT

PRESENTATION & BOOK SIGNING

Monday, March 9th, 6PM-7PM
Mammoth Lakes Library

Francis Gary Powers' son will discuss the Cold War, the U-2 incident, the controversy that surrounded his father, what the family has done to set the record straight, and Steven Spielberg's 2015 movie "Bridge of Spies" (DVD available at the library) that portrays the exchange of Francis Gary Powers for the Soviet spy, Rudolph Abel, in 1962. The presentation will include two short videos.

AARP® Tax Help

An all-volunteer Tax-Aide program will be operating during tax season in the Ellie Randol Reading Room at the Mammoth Library. The program is a partnership between the AARP Tax-Aide Foundation and the Mammoth Lakes Library. It offers free tax help, preparation, and e-filing during February, March, and April through the end of tax season on April 15th. The program operates on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons from 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

The AARP free Tax-Aide program assists low-to-moderate income taxpayers in Mono and Inyo Counties. Sue Stavlo is the district coordinator for AARP Tax Aide in addition to being the Mammoth Lakes local coordinator. In the district are two free Tax-Aide centers; one in Mammoth at the Mammoth Lakes Library and the other in Bishop at the Northern Inyo Hospital Birch Street Annex. Across the district are 30 volunteers. Each year in January, the volunteers are trained and certified through the IRS/AARP training program in the current year's tax laws and software.

What to bring when you visit our Tax-Aide site:

- Social security cards or ITIN documents for yourself and your dependents and a Picture ID
- Tax statements; W-2 forms, 1099-G (unemployment), SSA-1099, 1099-R, 1099-INT, 1099-DIV, 1099-MISC, 1095-A, broker statements, etc.
- If direct deposit desired, bring account information (routing and account numbers)
- Copy of last year's income tax return (if available)
- Child care provider information (name, provider's SSN or EIN, address, and phone)
- If itemizing deductions, bring past 2 years property tax bills, form 1098 for mortgage interest, DMV statement or car registration, medical expenses, charitable deductions, new vehicle invoice, etc.

About AARP Tax Help:

The Mammoth Library Tax-Aide site has 15 volunteers (three Spanish speaking). Last year, over 575 tax returns were prepared and filed. These volunteers help people with a wide variety of tax situations, including various forms of income, unemployment, education credits, earned income credit, child tax credit, dependent care deductions, renters' credit, itemized deductions, investment sales, and small businesses (with limits).

We encourage all taxpayers to file early even if they potentially owe money as those payments are not due until April 15th, regardless of when they file their tax return.

For more information or an appointment, please call or email Sue Stavlo: (760) 934-5674 or suestavlo@yahoo.com. Walk-ins are welcome. Priority is given to those with appointments.

Deming Grant Musical Story Times

MLFOL again hosted Brian Schuldt and Rebecca Hang with their six sessions of music for our youngest elementary school children during the Fall of 2019.

Two classes at a time take a field trip to the library (by walking from their school which is two blocks away) and hear a story set to music plus have the opportunity to try out student-sized violins or cellos. For Fall 2019, 279 students and 32 teachers and aides attended a session.

The returning students remember more than would be expected of such young children. Watching them answer difficult questions about music and instruments is a pleasure.

And, watching all of the students unconsciously sway to the music being performed shows how deeply music can impact their lives.

MINI GOLF AT THE LIBRARY!

Mark your calendar for a unique fundraiser at the Library 4th of July weekend!

Since the Library will be closed for the holiday and the town will be full of people looking for things to do, we're hoping to bring them into the Library for some fun. Plans are under way to turn the first and second floors into a mini-golf course and hold the first annual "Mammoth Library Open." For a small fee, adults and children will be able to "putt" their way through the stacks.

As an additional way to raise money, we are seeking sponsorships from individuals and businesses for the 18 holes. If you are interested in becoming a sponsor or donor for the event, you can "buy" one of the holes, or just a tee or green.

There will also be food, games and activities in the parking lot. A fun time for everyone! Watch your email for more information as we get closer to the July 4th holiday.

In U.S., Library Visits Outpaced Trips to Movies in 2019

by Justin McCarthy excerpted from news.gallup.com 1/24/2020

Visiting the library remains the most common cultural activity Americans engage in, by far. The average 10.5 trips to the library U.S. adults report taking in 2019 exceeds their participation in eight other common leisure activities. Americans attend live music or theatrical events and visit national or historic parks roughly four times a year on average and visit museums and gambling casinos 2.5 times annually. Trips to amusement or theme parks (1.5) and zoos (.9) are the least common activities among this list.

Despite the proliferation of digital-based activities over the past two decades -- including digital books, podcasts, streaming entertainment services and advanced gaming -- libraries have endured as a place Americans visit nearly monthly on average. Whether because they offer services like free Wi- Fi, movie rentals, or activities for children, libraries are most utilized by young adults, women and residents of low-income households.

Activities that typically cost money are visited or attended less frequently. Among this group of activities, outings to movie theaters and sports events remain the trips Americans make the most, while zoos are the least frequented.

Many factors determine how Americans spend their free time, and financial means is a key factor.

Age, too, is a large determinant. While middle-aged Americans may tend to be the most active in these activities due to their relative youth and greater financial stability, the 30 to 49 age cohort's activeness may also reflect its household makeup. The average age of a first-time mother in the U.S. is 26 and 31 for a first-time father, according to 2016 data from the National Center for Health Statistics. So, the need to keep growing children entertained through trips to the movies or to sporting events -- which are more popular among households with children -- may be more common among this age group.

But one's personal interests also factor into such decisions, which may bear out in activities showing significant gender differences, such as a women's book club at the local library, or activities that are more popular or available in certain parts of the country.

Langston Endowment Report

Several projects were undertaken in FY 18-19, which could not have been accomplished without the funding provided by the Langston Endowment:

- 1) A refresh of the Children's and Young Adult Collections with nearly 1,000 new titles added to our collection. With the assistance of Carissa Devine, the Youth Library Programming Manager, $10,796.09 was used to fund this project.
- 2) Upgrades to interior lighting for the Library were accomplished at a total of $6,686.58
- 3) Repairs to the Exterior Siding of the Library were completed for $ 4,855.86

Spiffing Up the Library

In addition to the Langston Endowment Funds used for interior lighting and exterior siding repairs, MLFOL used undesignated reserves to repaint the entire exterior of the library. Our twelve-year-old library was desperately in need of a new coat of paint, especially with our heavy winters. MLFOL paid $28,807.00 for this project.

In partnership with the Mono County Library, MLFOL entered into an MOU to cover the full amount of the work, with the Library then committing to spend $14,400.00 on collection development and programs for FY 19-20. This commitment of 50% of the cost will allow continued development and programs, and shows that both parties have pledged to upkeep of the building as well as the items within the library.

'New Kid' Makes History as First Graphic Novel To Win Newbery; Caldecott Goes To 'The Undeclared' by Kara Yorio in the School Library Journal, 28 January 2020

Maybe now skeptical parents, teachers, and administrators will understand: Reading graphic novels is real reading. As a matter of fact, it is reading of award-winning, critically acclaimed material.

At Monday's Youth Media Awards, Jerry Craft's New Kid became the first graphic novel to win the Newbery Medal. Craft also won the Coretta Scott King Author Award for the book. But Craft's victories were only part of the story: The format is finally getting mainstream recognition.

Vintage Books Report – 2019

MLFOL sold 28 books online during the past year. Sales were $926.55 and shipping expenses $238.18 for a net of $688.37.

For local sales, we made the change to selling Vintage Books at the Book Chalet. This resulted in year-round availability to these mostly local interest books. However, the sales were not separated from the total Book Chalet Sales, so no dollar amount is available to report.

Books are lighthouses erected in the great sea of time. - Edwin P. Whipple

Newbery Medal Award

Laura Dean Keeps Breaking Up with Me by Mariko Tamaki, illustrated by Rosemary Valero-O'Connell, was named a Printz Honor book. In awards other than the Big Three, graphic novels continued to collect accolades. The Asian/Pacific American Awards honored two graphic novels: Stargazing by Jen Wang won for Children's Literature, and They Called Us Enemy, written by George Takei, Justin Eisinger, and Steven Scott, and illustrated by Harmony Becker, won in the Young Adult Literature category. Surviving the City by Tasha Spillett (Nehiyaw-Trinidadian), illus. by Natasha Donovan (Métis Nation of British Columbia) was an honor title in the YA category of the American Indian Youth Literature Awards. In Waves by AJ Dungo and Gender Queer: A Memoir by Maia Kobabe won Alex Awards. Hey, Kiddo by Jarrett J. Krosoczka won the Odyssey Award for best audiobook.

Graphic novels had been named Newbery Honor titles in the past, namely Cece Bell's El Deafo in 2015 and Victoria Jamieson's Roller Girl in 2016.

One of Craft's hopes is that his award can "legitimize" graphic novels as a format. "I know that there are still schools and librarians who confiscate graphic novels or say that they are rotting your brain or they're not real books. A real book is like a steak dinner, and graphic novels are like doughnuts. You're not getting any nutrients from there," Craft said a few hours after the award was announced. "I definitely would like for those teachers and librarians and parents to say, 'Oh let me try a couple. Wow, Hey, Kiddo is unbelievable,' or the character development in Raina's books or Victoria Jamieson. So many people [are] doing wonderful work."

"New Kid is a distinct and timely story," said Newbery committee chair Krishna Grady. "Respectful of its child audience, it explores friendship, race, class and bullying in a fresh and oftentimes humorous manner. We let the criteria leads us in all of our discussions and it lead us to New Kid. It is individually distinct. It is simply put a 'distinguished contribution to American literature.'"

The Caldecott Medal went to The Undeclared with illustrations by Kadir Nelson. The Undeclared was also named a Newbery Honor title. The Printz Medal was awarded to A.S. King for Dig. But it was Craft and graphic novels' big day.

FINANCIAL REPORTS - Jo Bacon, MLFOL Treasurer

Notice that MLFOL is budgeting less for our collection and programming costs this fiscal year. As noted in the Langston Endowment Report in this newsletter, the Mono County Library budget will cover $14,400 in costs for the Mammoth Lakes Branch. Our budget, then, is for July through September.
